

How to apply for a J Venn Foundation Bursary: October 2018

THE J VENN FOUNDATION

The J Venn Foundation was formed in 2015 to provide bursaries to students resident in Hull who are going on to study for a degree or other tertiary qualification in the UK. It also funds literacy and other extra-curricular activities in Hull schools.

AVAILABILITY

Up to four bursaries, each paying £5,000 each year, will be provided whilst the students are studying for a first degree at a British university. Applicants who will study for other tertiary educational qualifications are also eligible. Application forms are available from info@jvennfoundation.org or by downloading from our website www.jvennfoundation.org.

ELIGIBILITY

Applicants must be currently resident in the City of Hull or have a Hull postal code address and fall into one or more of the following categories:

- a) Financial: The combined income of the parents or other guardians is less than £20,000 each year.
- b) Disabled: The student is disabled and in receipt of Disability Living Allowance.
- c) In care: Students who are currently in care or are care leavers or who have been in care for more than six months over the last three years.
- d) Carers and Parents: Students who are carers including those who are parents.
- e) Ethnic Minority: Including refugees and those from traveller families.

Applicants must begin studying for a first degree at a British University or studying for an alternative tertiary qualification in 2018 and be born after 31st August 1995.

J Venn will require its beneficiaries to act as advocates for the Foundation through, for example, blogs and speaking to small groups of students at their previous school or college.
